

All Greek to me

It doesn't get Greeker than this in SW5

AS GREEK AS IT GETS on Earl's Court Road prides itself on three things: simplicity, elegance, and something that's all too lacking from a Friday night at a restaurant - fun. The restaurant that has received more than a few awards from this publication in its time is run with love and care by owner Dimitri, who is more than happy to recommend a meal.

Faces of his family adorn the menus as you pick from a host of traditional, rustic, hand made meals. The decor is adorned with Dimitri's grandfather's pictures and the uniforms of Evzones, the Greek soldiers adorned with kilt-like garments (Dimitri's grandfather was one).

Rice encased in vine leaves arrives hand-prepared for maximum flavour. You can enjoy a glass of Greek wine or Ouzo with some daily home made pies, a big variety of Greek appetizers and unique souvlaki. Full a la carte menu includes bifteki with feta dip, pork gyros or skewers with aubergine puree, suckling country sausages and galaktoboureko.

Daily special dishes will give you the opportunity to discover more about Greek cuisine. The venue is not only a great night out with friends, but provides fun for birthday parties, family lunch or dinner throughout the week. Look no further than the hidden away upstairs area. Every dish is available to take out, so why not stop by the next time you're in Earl's Court or travelling along Old Brompton Road?

It turns out that the saying that Greeks do eat better, really is true. As good as it gets.
